OVERVIEW

Katelyn is a senior attorney for the firm's eMerge team, based in the Philadelphia office. She has more than a decade of experience defending a major pharmaceutical company in products liability actions in both state and MDL proceedings where she worked primarily on issues surrounding electronic discovery. Katelyn has significant experience managing and coordinating large scale electronic discovery projects. She possesses in-depth knowledge of the issues that clients face regarding electronic discovery in litigation including collection, management of review, and production of technically complex structured data sets.

Katelyn has been a member of the board of directors of Philadelphia VIP for more than seven years. Philadelphia VIP provides pro bono legal services for low-income residents and families facing civil legal problems that threaten their basic human needs – shelter, employment, financial stability, education, and health. Katelyn participates in the Development Committee to assist Philly VIP in raising money to support their programs and mission.
