OVERVIEW

Keith represents financial institutions in various capacities in connection with collateralized loan obligation transactions. He also represents issuers, developers, and financial institutions in the use of special assessment revenue bonds, refunding bonds, system revenue bonds, and general obligation bonds.

In addition to finance transactions, Keith counsels media and entertainment companies, studios, and related organizations, in the entertainment and social media ecosystem. He regularly negotiates deals related to management, agency, production, licensing, and intellectual property. His experience includes drafting, analyzing, and reviewing complex contractual agreements involving unique service and payment structures, revenue streams, licensing, and intellectual property rights. On the corporate side, Keith advises various entities and their members and equity holders on all aspects of governance, including but not limited to matters related to membership, management, employment, and compliance.
