OVERVIEW

Kevin has more than 35 years of experience resolving complex financial disputes, advising banks, asset-based lenders, consumer financiers, and providers of payments services. He also advises clients on high-profile leasing insolvencies, the international recovery of goods, and the enforceability of finance agreements against schools and academies.

The 2021-2022 edition of The Legal 500 noted that Kevin, “efficiently manages complex litigation to ensure they keep progressing towards a successful conclusion.”
