Kim brings more than two decades of experience in assisting the defense of insurance companies (ERISA) across various federal courts. Her experience extends to the general litigation defense of numerous state agencies in the Commonwealth of PA and several colleges and universities, as well as real estate litigation.

OVERVIEW

Kim's work has enabled her to become familiar with the local and e-filing rules across numerous federal courts in several states, as well as procedures in various Courts of Appeals. Her diverse experience spans a wide range of general litigation matters throughout Pennsylvania, including vendor disputes, employment discrimination, and real estate litigation. Additionally, Kim's commitment to pro bono work has provided her with valuable experience in criminal trials.
