OVERVIEW

Kiran focuses his practice on representing clients in complex business litigation and multiparty litigation matters, including corporate and commercial disputes; securities and antitrust litigation; disputes related to private equity investments; construction litigation as well as real estate and land use litigation; ERISA litigation; product liability, false and deceptive advertising, toxic tort, pharmaceutical, mass tort, and environmental litigation.

In addition, Kiran has broad experience in the energy industry, representing operating utilities of the nation's largest electric power holding company in significant matters before state regulatory commissions, including rate proceedings, energy efficiency and wholesale/retail power interface proceedings, and other regulatory matters. He has particular expertise with respect to the financial aspects of the industry, including rate of return and capital structure. Kiran is widely recognized as one of the premier litigation attorneys in North Carolina, and has been consistently honored as such by multiple legal ratings agencies, such as Chambers USA, Super Lawyers, and North Carolina Legal Elite. He was also named as "Lawyer of the Year" in 2012, 2017, and 2019 for Charlotte-area environmental litigation, and "Lawyer of the Year" from 2014-2018 for Charlotte-area construction litigation, by Best Lawyers in America®.
