Kyle Driggers

Associate

Charlotte

kyle.driggers@troutman.com

D 919.835.4145

OVERVIEW

Kyle is an associate in the firm's Business Litigation practice. Kyle has supported complex litigation matters involving high-stakes commercial disputes, insurance and reinsurance issues, consumer finance class action claims, constitutional and property-rights challenges, and election-law disputes. His experience includes work on dispositive motions, summary judgment and trial preparation, post-judgment enforcement proceedings, and matters involving substantial damages and multimillion-dollar outcomes. He has significant appellate experience in active matters before federal and state appellate courts, including appeals involving major judgment enforcement issues and emergency injunction relief. Kyle has also worked closely with trial teams in preserving issues for appeal.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Kyle was a professor at Columbia University (Barnard College).

TOP AREAS OF FOCUS

- Appellate + Supreme Court
- Business Litigation

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Judicial intern, Hon. Thomas Lambeth, North Carolina Superior Court, Graham, North Carolina, June – August 2022
- Judicial intern, Hon. Darren Jackson, North Carolina Court of Appeals, Raleigh, North Carolina, May – June 2022
- Research assistant, Professor Joseph Kennedy, UNC School of Law, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, May – August 2022
- Term assistant professor, Philosophy Department, Columbia University, N.Y., July 2018 – June 2020

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

©2026 Troutman Pepper Locke

- University of North Carolina School of Law, with honors, 2024, staff member, North Carolina Law Review; articles editor, North Carolina Journal of International Law
- University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Ph.D., 2018, philosophy
- The University of Alabama, B.A., 2008, Philosophy Honors Program, Phi Beta Kappa

BAR ADMISSIONS

- North Carolina