OVERVIEW

Kyle focuses his practice on financial services litigation, representing financial institutions, lenders, and servicers in state and federal courts, as well as before arbitration tribunals.

Kyle frequently advises clients on federal consumer protection statutes, including the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), Truth in Lending Act (TILA), Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), along with similar state regulations.

In addition to his work in financial services litigation, Kyle assists clients with a variety of creditors' rights and collections matters.
