Leslie litigates complex insurance and commercial cases at the trial and appellate levels in state and federal courts nationwide on behalf of U.S.-based and international clients. She also arbitrates reinsurance and commercial disputes in domestic and international proceedings.

OVERVIEW

Leslie has significant experience representing reinsurance companies and insurance companies in dispute work, with a focus on life insurance/reinsurance, catastrophe insurance/reinsurance, and high-stakes property and casualty issues, such as mass torts and sexual abuse/molestation claims. She regularly represents insurance and reinsurance companies in negotiations, mediations, court lawsuits, and arbitrations arising out of their reinsurance relationships.

Leslie works with clients to develop strategies for addressing portfolio-wide issues and issues with significant, potentially multibillion-dollar impacts. She has extensive experience in federal bankruptcy, district, and appellate courts, and regularly represents clients in high-stakes commercial litigation.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Insurance/Reinsurance

- Achieved a significant victory for a reinsurer in an arbitration concerning its contractual right to increase nonguaranteed reinsurance premiums and secured a final award worth upwards of $115 million.
- Counseling and representing reinsurers in disputes involving their obligations and their ability to increase premiums on books of yearly renewable term life insurance.
- Representing insurers in litigation involving coverage for Amtrak's environmental liabilities and various bodily injury claims arising out of repetitive stress, asbestos, and other substances.
- Counseling and representing insurers in litigation regarding coverage for concussion-related injuries involving the National Football League, the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and World Wrestling Entertainment.
