OVERVIEW

Lisa is a paralegal in the firm's Consumer Financial Services practice, supporting clients including banks, mortgage servicers, auto lenders, and financial institutions navigating an increasingly complex regulatory environment. She brings 12 years of legal experience from the Virginia Beach City Attorney's Office, where her work on multiparty disputes, government regulations, and litigation management developed skills that translate directly to the demands of CFS practice.

Her municipal law background is a genuine asset — experience in local government law instilled a precise, deadline-driven approach that serves clients well in a heavily regulated industry.
