LuAnne is an intellectual property and commercial contracts attorney who helps clients protect their assets, optimize value, and navigate risk. Her approach helps clients advance their objectives throughout the business cycle.

OVERVIEW

LuAnne advises clients on a range of intellectual property and related branding needs, including the prosecution and licensing of her clients' trademarks, copyrights, and patents. Her broad practice spans advertising and sponsorship issues, brand acquisition, and trade secret protection. Additionally, LuAnne advises on a wide range of digital and social media issues, including regulatory compliance matters for consumer product clients.

While LuAnne is experienced across a variety of industries, she offers particular depth with licensing agreements and research and development contracts in the health care and life sciences sectors. She also works closely with clients in the apparel, consumer product, entertainment, food and beverage, gaming, and media sectors. Her entertainment clients include producers and studios (particularly in production matters, such as finance and distribution, and cross border production), and those in the music industry include artists and other creators, where she handles all aspects of their recording and licensing contracts.
