

M. Kevin McCusty

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Kevin's practice focused on representation of banks, other financial institutions and borrowers in a wide array of syndicated, club, and portfolio credit transactions, including secured and unsecured commercial credit facilities, real estate construction and permanent loans, workouts, and other related matters. He also worked on matters involving commercial real estate, including representation of developers, sellers, purchasers, investors, and others in the acquisition, development, financing, and sale of office, industrial, retail, residential, hospitality, multifamily residential, and mixed-use properties, and representation of landlords and tenants in lease negotiations and disputes. He represented private nonprofit organizations in legal, development, financial, business planning, and other related matters.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- University of Virginia School of Law, J.D., 1984
- University of Virginia, M.B.A., 1984
- Washington and Lee University, B.A., magna cum laude, 1980