

Mark L. Elliott
Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Real estate clients seeking effective, business-focused counsel repeatedly turned to Mark for his experience in office development, financing, and leasing. Before retiring, Mark primarily represented developers, institutional and entrepreneurial owners, and landlords. His clients included publicly traded real estate companies and active real estate developers, operators, and investors. He also counseled national hotel franchisors and owners in hotel and lodging development and finance matters.
