OVERVIEW

Maryia is a first-chair trial attorney and commercial litigator with more than 16 years of experience representing consumer-facing companies in highly regulated industries, including decentralized and traditional finance. She is known for her strategic and practical approach, prioritizing her clients' goals.

Maryia has significant experience defending clients nationwide in mass arbitrations and class actions brought under federal and state consumer protection and data privacy laws. She also handles business and employment disputes, products liability lawsuits, and other complex matters. Maryia has successfully prosecuted and defended jury and bench trials in federal and state courts. At the appellate level, Maryia has obtained victories for her clients in the Virginia Supreme Court and the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Maryia is committed to her community. She has served as a court-appointed special advocate for abused and neglected children in Virginia Beach and volunteered at the Virginia Beach Animal Care and Adoption Center.
