Mat is a seasoned corporate attorney with deep cross-border experience who concentrates his practice on M&A, joint venture, capital markets, and other complex transactional matters, with a focus on the life sciences space. Mat also acts as the honorary consul for the Republic of Poland.

OVERVIEW

Mat represents public and private national and multinational companies in all aspects of buy-side and sell-side, stock, asset, merger, acquisition, and divestiture transactions, with specific experience in managing cross-border transactions.

Mat also advises companies on integral corporate matters, such as the preparation, review, and negotiation of business-critical commercial agreements, management of internal restructurings, and general corporate and governance matters.

Clients that Mat represents span a variety of industries, including health care, pharmaceuticals, science and biotechnology, food and beverage, software and technology, communications, retail and consumer products, and advertising, as well as water treatment and other heavy industries.

Before attending law school, Mat held marketing and product management positions in the life sciences manufacturing and distribution sector.
