OVERVIEW

Michael focuses his practice on mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, and securities. He is particularly experienced representing REITs and financial institutions in a variety of corporate matters. Michael represents issuers and underwriters in public and private offerings of common, preferred, and convertible equity securities and debt securities, as well as in acquisition and joint venture transactions.

Michael regularly counsels board of directors and senior management of companies on governance, transactional, and disclosure matters.

He is also the author of published articles on topics related to corporate governance, joint venture design, executive compensation, securities regulations, and distressed debt.

Michael served as co-chairman of the firm's Commercial Department and as chairman of its Corporate and Securities Practice Group from 2005 through 2010.
