Clients trust Mike with a wide range of complex litigation and investigation matters, including class actions, antitrust and competition disputes, and white collar cases.

OVERVIEW

Mike concentrates his practice in antitrust and competition law, class action litigation, and white collar defense. He has defended clients in a number of Sherman Act conspiracy cases and has substantial experience counseling companies on antitrust compliance, as well as competition law issues present in supplier, distributor, and licensing agreements. He has also litigated against, and represented clients before government enforcers, including the Department of Justice Antitrust Division and state attorneys general, and has worked with clients to structure and complete internal investigations. Mike has significant experience in the pharmaceutical and health care industries, and has also represented clients across many other sectors including agriculture, transportation, and manufacturing.

Mike is a member of the Antitrust Law Committee of the American Bar Association, and has regularly presented at CLEs regarding pleading and summary judgment standards in antitrust conspiracy cases.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Antitrust and Competition Law

- Fraser et al. v. Cal-Maine Foods, Inc. et al. (N.D. Cal.); Bell et al. v. Cal-Maine Foods, Inc. et al. (W.D. Tex.). Defended two large egg producers named as defendants in putative class actions alleging that consumers paid prices for eggs that violated the California and Texas price gouging laws. Successfully achieved full dismissal in California action.
- In re Generic Pharmaceuticals Pricing Antitrust Litigation (E.D. Pa., MDL 2724). Defended generic pharmaceutical manufacturers in multidistrict litigation pending in federal court alleging violations of federal and state antitrust statutes and state consumer protection laws relating to an alleged conspiracy among manufacturers to fix prices for certain generic drugs. Plaintiffs in the multidistrict litigation include direct purchasers, indirect resellers, end-payers, opt-out direct action plaintiffs, and state attorneys general.
- Obtained dismissal by the U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division of its investigation of a Fortune 200 manufacturing company into an alleged cross-border no-poach agreement.
- In re Class 8 Transmission Indirect Purchaser Antitrust Litigation, 140 F. Supp. 3d 339 (D. Del. 2015) aff'd,

2017 U.S. App. LEXIS 2328 (3d Cir. Feb. 9, 2017); Wallach et al. v. Eaton Corp. et al. (D. Del.). Defeated class certification, which included obtaining Third Circuit affirmance of the indirect purchaser class decision, in companion hub-and-spoke conspiracy lawsuits on behalf of two heavy duty truck manufacturers.

- Jeld-Wen, Inc. v. AGC America, Inc. et al. (D. Oreg.). Defended an international glass manufacturer in litigation alleging price fixing in the U.S. glass industry.
- Methodist Health Services Corp. v. OSF Healthcare System, No. 13-cv-01054, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 136478 (C.D. Ill. Sept. 30, 2016), aff'd No. 17-3791, 2017 U.S. App. LEXIS 10275 (11th Cir. June 9, 2017). Obtained summary judgment for a major Central Illinois hospital system against claims of attempted monopolization.
- International Construction Products LLC v. Caterpillar Inc. et al. (D. Del.). Defended a construction vehicle manufacturer against claims of an illegal group boycott conspiracy.
