OVERVIEW

Nina has been with the firm's Intellectual Property team since 2021, assisting with trademark prosecution and IP litigation. She has extensive trademark experience, having worked with trademark and prosecution matters for more than ten years. This experience includes involvement in all phases of U.S. and foreign trademark prosecution, U.S. trademark opposition and cancellation actions, as well as trademark watching and monitoring. In addition to providing the firm's trademark paralegal support, Nina also assists clients in obtaining IP diligence reports and other IP-related matters.
