

Paris Kent

Associate

New York

paris.kent@troutman.com

D 212.704.6190

OVERVIEW

Paris is an associate in the firm's Business Litigation practice. She recently graduated from Fordham University School of Law, where she completed her J.D. and was a member of the Fordham Urban Law Journal.

While in law school, Paris served as research assistant to Professor Deborah Denno, where she conducted extensive analysis of cases involving neuroscientific evidence for one of the largest neuroscience and law projects in the U.S. Paris also served as a student attorney for Fordham Family Advocacy Clinic, and as an intern for the Hon. Sherry Klein Heitler of the New York State Office of Court Administration.

TOP AREAS OF FOCUS

- Business Litigation
- Litigation + Trial

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Research assistant, Professor Deborah Denno, Fordham University School of Law, June 2019 – May 2021
- Student attorney, Fordham Family Advocacy Clinic, January – May 2021
- Judicial intern, Hon. Sherry Klein Heitler, NYS Office of Court Administration, June – August 2018

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- Fordham University School of Law, J.D., 2021
- University of Florida, B.S., cum laude, 2018

BAR ADMISSIONS

- New York

PUBLICATIONS

- Co-author, “EO Provides CFIUS Guidance on Conducting National Security Reviews,” Troutman Pepper, September 26, 2022.