

Peyton Holahan

Associate

Washington, D.C.

peyton.holahan@troutman.com

D 202.274.2953

OVERVIEW

Peyton is an associate in the firm's Finance and Restructuring practice. She has experience drafting amendments to credit agreements, creating closing checklists, and revising loan documents.

Peyton returns to the firm after previously working as a summer associate. She received her J.D. from Washington and Lee University School of Law where she served as editor-in-chief of the Washington and Lee Journal of Civil Rights and Social Justice.

AWARDS

- Honors, Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll, D.C. Access to Justice Commission and the D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center (2024)

TOP AREAS OF FOCUS

- Bankruptcy + Restructuring
- Finance + Banking

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Legal intern, United States Marshals Service, Office of The General Counsel, 2021
- Congressional intern, House of Representatives, Office of Congresswoman Kathleen Rice, 2019

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- Washington and Lee University School of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2023
- Roanoke College, B.A., summa cum laude, 2020

BAR ADMISSIONS

- District of Columbia

PUBLICATIONS

- Co-author, “A Lender’s Dilemma in the Digital Age: What Lenders Should be Doing to Access Electronic Books and Records,” Westlaw Today, August 24, 2022.