

Richard A. Rubin

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Richard's practice was concentrated in corporate securities, mergers and acquisitions, lending, general corporate matters and corporate governance. He represented clients in public and private offerings of debt and equity securities; financial structuring; going private and recapitalization transactions; corporate governance; reporting and disclosure issues; public, private and bankruptcy acquisitions and divestitures; commercial borrowing for both lenders and borrowers; contractual negotiations, and other general legal matters.

He advised and represented banks in structuring and documenting securities, art, and other secured lending transactions.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- New York University, LL.M., 1968
- Brooklyn Law School, J.D., 1967
- Queens College, The City University of New York, B.S., 1964