

Robert D. Fortson

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Robert Fortson's practice included representation of domestic and foreign banks in closing commercial real estate transactions, including construction, bridge, and permanent loans. His practice also included the representation of foreign investors, municipal development authorities, and the special assets division of a national bank in workout/foreclosure matters.