

Robert Heggstad

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Bob had extensive civil litigation experience in state and federal courts throughout the U.S. His practice involved advising clients on a wide variety of matters, and he was retained by major corporations, corporate executives, trade associations, and some of the nation's largest insurance companies in disputes involving commercial contracts, business torts, government regulation issues, employment practices, and insurance coverage issues.