OVERVIEW

Sakia represents public and private companies in a broad range of strategic commercial transactions, including buy and sell-side M&A transactions, joint ventures, and financings. With experience serving as outside general counsel, she also advises clients on corporate formation and governance matters. Sakia works with clients across a variety of industries, such as transportation, technology, energy, construction, manufacturing, and financial services.

Sakia also advises clients in the area of commercial contracting, guiding clients throughout their transactions as well as drafting, negotiating, and revising supplier, vendor, and maintenance contracts. Her holistic approach helps clients to understand how to optimize their opportunities while mitigating business and legal risks.

Sakia's active pro bono practice is dedicated to serving clients such as nonprofit organizations, advising them on corporate structure and governance matters.
