OVERVIEW

Taylor is an associate in the firm's Corporate practice. She represents clients in private investment transactions, mergers, and acquisitions. She has successfully completed buy-side and sell-side transactions in sales and acquisitions of both equity and assets in a wide range of industries. She also has experience counseling clients in general corporate governance and organizational structuring.

Taylor received her J.D. and M.B.A. from Villanova University in a dual degree program. While attending law school, Taylor served as a class representative on the Villanova Student Bar Association and as vice president of the Villanova Black Law Students Association.

Additionally, Taylor was a student attorney in the school's Clinic for Law and Entrepreneurship, where she helped provide pro bono legal services to Philadelphia-area community enterprises, nonprofit organizations, entrepreneurs, and small businesses.

Prior to attending law school, Taylor graduated from Georgetown University with a master's degree in sports industry management.
