

Terry C. Bridges

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

Terry Bridges provided legal advice to a wide range of clients during his more than 30 years as a finance and merger and acquisition attorney, including public utility and energy clients such as PNM Resources, The Southern Company, DTE Energy, LG&E, Dynegy, PacifiCorp, Unisource Energy, SEMCO Energy, TECO Energy, Illinova, and Trigen. He previously served as an executive, including as executive vice president and as general counsel, of several NYSE-listed companies. In addition to transactional and finance matters, he worked closely with boards of directors, board committees, and senior management in a number of industries relative to strategic planning, review of proposed transactions, legal audits and other governance issues, public disclosures, and executive compensation.
