OVERVIEW

Rain handles high-stakes insurance coverage disputes from inception through resolution. She focuses her practice on complex matters involving director misconduct, construction defects, and bad faith claims, and has experience managing cases involving hundreds of millions of dollars in potential liability. Rain also drafts dispositive motions, and manages extensive discovery and document production.

Before joining the firm, Rain litigated coverage disputes in New York, where she drafted appellate briefs and coverage opinions on construction defects and professional negligence claims. She also gained broad litigation experience in real estate, employment, and securities matters. Rain is a native Chinese speaker.
