

Timothy Shyu

Associate

Austin

timothy.shyu@troutman.com

D 512.305.4832

OVERVIEW

Timothy advises clients on regulatory compliance and enforcement in highly regulated industries, including health care and life sciences, data privacy and cybersecurity, and emerging technology. He assists companies in navigating complex investigations and enforcement actions, helping them mitigate regulatory risk proactively.

Timothy routinely helps clients navigate and comply with changes in health care data privacy laws, including HIPAA. Additionally, he provides counsel on corporate political activities, including compliance and reporting issues related to lobbying and campaign finance.

TOP AREAS OF FOCUS

- Regulatory Investigations, Strategy + Enforcement

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Legal intern, Texas Hospital Association
- Government affairs intern, Center on Budget and Policy Priorities

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- The University of Texas School of Law, J.D., with honors, 2024, president, Texas Health Law Society; staff editor, The Texas Journal of Oil, Gas, and Energy Law
- The University of Texas at Dallas, B.S., healthcare management, summa cum laude, 2021

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Texas

PUBLICATIONS

- Co-author, "Reproductive Health Data Privacy Laws in Flux – Compliance in an Ever-Changing Landscape," Troutman Pepper Locke, October 6, 2025.
- Co-author, "2025 Mid-Year Review: State AGs in a New Era," Troutman Pepper Locke, July 25, 2025.
- Co-author, "New Legal Developments Herald Big Changes for HIPAA Compliance in 2025," Reuters Legal News, April 7, 2025.