Clients rely on Todd's significant experience structuring and negotiating M&A transactions, and in representing companies in the health care, life sciences, as well as software and technology industries, at every stage of their life cycle: from startup and growth financings, to exit.

OVERVIEW

Todd concentrates his practice in the areas of financial and strategic mergers and acquisitions, including the structuring and negotiation of stock and asset acquisitions and dispositions, mergers, joint ventures, and strategic alliance arrangements. He represents private equity, venture capital funds, and emerging companies in matters ranging from formation up to and through venture financing and exit transactions. Todd has nuanced industry experience in health care, life sciences, and technology and software, among others.

In addition to his transaction-based practice, Todd regularly represents and advises U.S. companies in the life sciences, technology, and food and beverage industries on day-to-day legal issues, including equity compensation, general corporate matters, and in connection with licensing and commercialization agreements.
