Tyler has experience working with C-Suite level executives and possesses a deep understanding of complex legal, accounting, and financial issues. Tyler's prior experience as a certified public accountant providing audit and transaction advisory services informs his work as a litigator. Clients turn to Tyler for his deep breadth of knowledge and his client-first mindset.

OVERVIEW

Tyler is an associate in the firm's Business Litigation practice. After college, Tyler worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP, as an external auditor. Later, he worked as a transaction advisory services consultant where he provided buy-side and sell-side financial due diligence services to private equity clients and strategic investors.

Tyler brings this diverse background to his work as a litigator. At trial, Tyler leverages his skillsets and prior work experience to help achieve positive outcomes for clients.
