OVERVIEW

Victoria is the knowledge management attorney for the firm's litigation-focused practice groups, helping to develop and implement bespoke knowledge management strategies and solutions through direct practice group engagement.

Before joining the firm, Victoria was a senior specialist legal editor at Thomson Reuters Practical Law, where she created and managed litigation know-how content and contributed to legal technology innovation, including by developing AI-driven tools and workflows for litigation attorneys. Previously, she was a litigation partner at an Am Law 200 firm, where she handled complex commercial disputes in state and federal courts from case inception through trial and appeal.
