

Wallace A. Christensen

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

With more than 30 years of experience, Wally Christensen handled sophisticated and complex commercial litigation in courts throughout the U.S. He was retained by major corporations, numerous law firms, corporate executives, real estate developers, trade associations, and some of the nation's largest insurance companies in disputes involving commercial contracts, business torts, trade secrets, noncompete clauses, employment practices, lender liability, securities law compliance, and insurance coverage issues. He represented numerous professional athletes in several high-profile proceedings. He also represented clients in connection with criminal investigations of business activities. Wally was recognized in Chambers USA 2007 as "an extremely effective trial lawyer who's gotten some outstanding results for his clients," and was also inducted as a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers in 2008.
