Bill advises banks, financial institutions, insurance companies, and fintech firms on complex commercial litigation and regulatory issues, utilizing a unique approach to problem-solving across a broad range of industries and practice areas.

OVERVIEW

Bill regularly represents clients in both state and federal courts, and before arbitration tribunals, in cases involving TILA, RESPA, FDCPA, FCRA, and related state laws. Bill also advises companies on investigating and responding to data breaches and trade secret exfiltration, initiating trade secret misappropriation litigations when necessary.

Bill's comprehensive approach to litigation strategy includes conducting internal forensic investigations to gather and analyze relevant information for discovery and trial phases. He also represents clients in RMBS-related lawsuits, defends against securities and fraud claims, and advises on corporate strategy for financial technology funds.

Previously, Bill worked with attorneys representing Major League Baseball clubs throughout the salary arbitration process by aiding in the drafting and preparation of arbitration briefs and exhibits and participating in the related hearings.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Represents a national mortgage loan servicer as a third-party defendant arising out of first-party repurchase litigations commenced against the sponsor of RMBS securitizations.
- Represents non-bank lenders in various DTSA actions concerning the exfiltration of protected trade secret information.
- Represented a sponsor of exchange-traded funds (ETFs) in the defense and dismissal of securities and common law fraud claims.
- Represented a bank in the dismissal of a purported shareholder class-action suit seeking to block, by preliminary injunction, a potential merger.
- Advised the managers of financial technology funds on general corporate strategy, formation, financing, and issues surrounding the acquisition of marketplace and peer-to-peer originated assets.

- Represented a global hospitality chain in the arbitration and state and federal litigation arising from a stock purchase agreement, related post-closing purchase price adjustments, and various claims for fraud and misrepresentation.
- Represented pro bono the family of a retired New York City Fire Department Captain killed in the September 11 attacks on the World Trade Center in an Article 78 proceeding to properly list him on the National 9/11 Memorial at Ground Zero.
