OVERVIEW

Will focuses on private equity and strategic transactions across diverse industries. He represents clients in corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, asset purchases, business divestitures, and financings. With extensive experience in sectors such as insurance, energy, infrastructure, banking, food and beverage, and technology, Will manages private placements, public financings, and mergers and acquisitions. He also guides clients through securities filings and corporate governance requirements under securities law and stock exchange rules.

Before his legal career, Will was an investment banker in technology M&A, which enhanced his strategic transaction experience.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS
